

HOPE FOR AMERICA

POST YOUR EVENTS ON FREEREPUBLIC.COM

Freerepublic.com is a conservative website that allows postings and comments, like a forum.

Anyone can read the postings but to POST an item, you must be a registered user. You pick a screen name and give them your name, address and email. They keep all that info confidential, so you always post under your anonymous screen name. People can send you internal email thru this site by sending to your screen name....so your ID is protected.

The top forums include ACTIVISM and each state has a page for activities in that state.

For example, if you want to post an item for Virginia, click on POST...then choose NEWS/ACTIVISM, then fill out the title, forum/topics (VA), keywords, related websites and then post the message. You can use plain text or html. Also, you can include links, email addresses and pictures. You preview your message then POST. The message appears in your state forum.

This is a monitored site, so postings in the wrong area will be removed by the moderator.

This website is very popular with social conservatives, so posting there should add good visibility to your event.

ALWAYS REMEMBER TO USE OUR OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE WHEN POSTING DESCRIPTIONS FOR OUR RALLIES AND ALWAYS INCLUDE OUR WEBSITE LINK IN ANY PROMOTIONAL POSTS YOU MAY DO
